SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29 .- Richard T Laffin, who will be general manager of the big American street railroad system about to be inaugurated in Manila, has arrived here on his way to the Orient. The company, he says, will invest about $4,000,000 in organizing a street-car service, which will eventually be extended to the suburban districts, with about forty miles of line. One hundred trolley cars will be sent over as a starter, and California will benefit by the shipment of 50,000 redwood ties. The other material will come from Pitts-
